

Cheque 22

Sir John Falstaff's Restaurant

This cheque was made for £21, three days before Charles Dickens' death.

Why Cheque 22?

Charles Dickens' patronage to the Sir John Falstaff ended on the morning of the day he died, when he came to the Falstaff to cash a cheque with the landlord, for £22; around £2,350 in today's money. It has not been possible to obtain a copy of this cheque for £22, yet...
